LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 61: 1-3

The Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the lowly and to give them the oil of gladness.

RESPONSE TO THE READING

Psalms 34: The Cry of the Poor
John B. Foley, S.J.

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Bless-ed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
with praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord,
who will hear the cry of the poor.

Ev'ry spirit crushed God will save;
will be ransom for their lives;
will be safe shelter for their fears,
and will hear the cry of the poor.

Let the lowly hear and be glad:
the Lord listens to their pleas;
and to hearts broken God is near,
who will hear the cry of the poor.

We proclaim your greatness, O God,
your praise ever in our mouth;
ev'ry face brightened in your light,
for you hear the cry of the poor.

Serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace.

Beloved, be serious and sober-minded so that you will be able to pray. Above all, let your love for one another be intense, because love covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaining. As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace. Whoever preaches, let it be with the words of God; whoever serves, let it be with the strength that God supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Laying on of Hands and Prayer of Ordination

SONG DURING THE LAYING ON OF HANDS (Sit)

Holy Spirit, Come to Us
Jacques Berthier

Ho - ly Spir - it, come to us, kin - dle in us the fire of your love.

Ho - ly Spir - it, come to us, ve - ni San - cte Spi - ri - tus.

Jesus said, "I give you a new commandment: Love one another just as I have loved you."

Jesus said, "It is by your love for one another, that ev'ry one will recognize you as my disciples."

Jesus said, "No one has greater love than this: to lay down one's life for those one loves."

We know love by this, that Christ laid down his life for us.

This is love: it is not we who have loved God but God who loved us.

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God and God in them.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

One Lord
Lori True

One Lord, one faith, one call to serve each oth - er. One heart, one mind, one com - mon ground; we stand all as one.

Give us new hands, open and free, to serve with grace and dignity. May we be worthy of our call.
 We have but one...

Give us new eyes, loving and wise, to seek the good we all have inside. May we be worthy of our call.
 We have but one...

Give us new hearts, humble yet strong, to love like you our whole life long. May we be worthy of our call.
 We have but one...

Breathe out your Spirit upon the land. In hope and peace we'll firmly stand, live lives worthy of our call.
 We have but one...

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we pro-claim your death, Lord Je - sus. So as we share this feast may we be - come heal - ing and light and peace. May we be one.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

This Is the Feast of Victory

This is the feast of vic - to-ry for our God. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. lu - ia.

Verses Last time

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God.

Power, riches, wisdom, and strength, and honor, blessing, and glory are his.

Sing with all the people of God, and join in the hymn of all creation.

Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE

Symphonie No. 1, Op. 14: Final
Louis Vierne, 1870-1937

A NOTE OF THANKS

In our gratitude and joy to almighty God, who has led us in love and wisdom to this day, we give thanks and praise.

The call to presbyteral ordination is neither received nor is it accepted in isolation. The journey to this moment began with our families. We are forever grateful to our parents who formed us in the Faith:

Charles and Janet Anderson
Dien and My Phan

You have been our first evangelizers and proclaimed the Word of God to us by the way you lived. You have shaped us into the men God has called us to be.

This journey continued as we were received into religious life in the Order of Friars Minor. Here we were guided by our brothers, who by their courageous and faithful witness have provided for us an example of what it means to witness to the Word of God and to serve God's people.

The journey brought us to Washington Theological Union and to The Catholic University of America, where our professors, our ministerial supervisors, our spiritual mentors, and our classmates modeled, through countless examples of faith seeking understanding, what it means to be a Church, led by the Holy Spirit, transforming creation.

During these years we were also shaped and formed by the laymen and laywomen to whom we ministered and who ministered to us. To all of you we are eternally indebted for your gifts of time, talent, and treasures to our journeys of faith.

We would like especially to thank His Eminence, Theodore Cardinal McCarrick, for his kindness and generosity in presiding over this celebration. We also wish to thank the friars, staff and parishioners of the Church of Saint Francis of Assisi in New York City for their hospitality and warmth in hosting this celebration.

To all the men and women who have journeyed with us, we say thank you; may God grant you blessings and peace. Amen! Alleluia!

Larry and David
